SEED VENTURE FINANCE PROVIDES EXPANSION CAPITAL TO ADAPTIVE INSTRUMENTS CORP.

SEED Venture Finance LLC announced that it has provided $450,000 in the form of a Subordinated Note with detachable warrants to Adaptive Instruments Corp. of Hudson, MA. The capital will be used for the continued development, marketing and production of the Company's wireless communications and instrument products.

Tom Wooters, Investment Manager for SEED Venture Finance LLC, stated "We are very pleased to be able to support Adaptive Instruments. We believe that Adaptive's strong market position in the market for instrumentation in the industrial and process industries uniquely position the company to capitalize on the dramatic growth in the market for wireless instrumentation in these industries."

Adaptive Instruments designs, develops and manufactures microprocessor-based smart instrumentation including both loop-powered and wireless instruments. Adaptive provides fully integrated, tether-free field-measurement units qualified for use in the most demanding industrial and processing environments. The company's products provide plug-and-play integration with virtually any legacy system for data acquisition and control. Adaptive Instrument's products allow organizations in the industrial and process industries to acquire much greater amounts of useful field data at dramatically lower cost than wired technology.
